About PricePlay.com

PricePlay.com is dedicated to making shopping fun on the Internet. By allowing you to play games to lower the price of the item you wish to purchase, PricePlay.com provides a platform that utilizes your game skill, and lets you control over the price you pay.

By allowing the buyers to play games to lower the price of the item, PricePlay.com provides a platform that utilizes people's game skill instead of having to bid for an item (and pray you get it), or pay a "fixed" price dictated by the vendor. PricePlay.com, via its truly innovative business model which is based on U.S. and Foreign Patent Processes, is changing on-line shopping by providing the opportunity for the buyer to "control" the price they pay for the desired product, while having FUN and saving money!

PricePlay.com will also bring benefits to sellers. Additional Sales, Increased Revenue, Consistent Profit Margin, Seamless Distribution, Comprehensive Product Listings, Incremental Brand Exposure, Targeted Advertising Sponsorship, Exponentially Longer Impressions, Data Mining, just to name a few!

PricePlay.com "Merchant Partners" garner unparalleled marketing and sales benefits found nowhere else in the e-Commerce world. Why? Because on-line consumers now have the choice to have fun while they shop for products! "Point, Click, and Buy" will be replaced with PricePlay.com's: "Point, Click, PLAY to SAVE, and Buy". Captive consumers immersed exponentially longer in your brand, having fun and saving money while purchasing products... What could be better?

You'll start wondering "Should Shopping Be This Fun?"™

About PricePlay.com

PricePlay.com launched earlier this year, and is a unique mix of popular internet technologies: dynamic pric games. The new venture offers the opportunity for shoppers to play their way to big discounts, by combining conventional online shopping with Internet game technology. PricePlay.com offers over one million items for consumers can "Play Your Price!" With it's unique patent-pending business process and technologies, Price promises the next major evolution in on-line shopping.

PricePlay.com is the first ever Play Your Price!™ site on the Internet. A wide range of products is available electronic goods, books, music, toys, travel, jewelry, antiques, and so on; additional commerce partners are added to the site weekly. Shoppers are able to compete for the best possible price on a huge range of items playing scores of online games. For instance, in "Basketball," the more baskets scored - the bigger the disco rock bottom prices available and the fun of the games should have a significant impact on the online auction on-line entertainment industries.

The company has secured multi-million dollar institutional funding, and is poised for explosive growth in this e-commerce space.
